THE introduction of a new Sunday paper in this city seems to have had the effect to introduce into the conduct of some of those which have been heretofore comparatively decent, the habit of referring to the president as "Mr. HAYES," " de facto HAYES and "HAYES," all of which goes to show that evil communications corrupt good it would be dancerous to nominate any man for the presidency who has a red head. This certainly would be as sensible as the anti-third-term movement, and it might prove more successful.

THOSE newspapers which have been drawing morals from the alleged fact that the Kallocus, father and son, were republicans will not probably notice the actual fact that a democratic state senator presided over a democratic meeting in San Francisco called to sympathise with the KALLOCHS as a couple of democratic martyrs to republican persecution.

THE Sunday Chronicle of this city seems and has been incessant in its attacks upon General GRANT?

Once before it was subjected to a like inconvenience, and then the city merchants came to its relief. What will be done now remains to be seen. If tory repeats itself. Once before it was subwill be done now remains to be seen. If the democrats had possession of the office they would probably resort to locofoco matches for their light.

THE municipal election in Salisbury, N. C., last week was hotly contested and resulted in a victory for the republicans. J. A. RAMSEY was elected mayor by a majority of 31 in a total vote of 467. The democratic Watchman is much chagrined and can only account for the fact by admitting that the republican ticket was "highly respectable personally." It says: "The political tendency of this is to hold the republican party "together and to concentrate them in elec-"tions." This may be sad, but it is true.

That is not a the contrary, it can very easily be proven from existing records, both printed and in manuscript, that in the early THE New York Tribune thinks that portion of his second term a very large proportion-probably nine-tenths-of the voters were enruestly desirons of elect-Chicago, but that a combination of any one ing him a third time, and that if he had not published his farewell address withdrawing his name and declining to be considered a candidate, no other man then living would have received any considerable number of votes. Beyond all question he would have again received the unanimous, or nearly manimous, vote of the mous, or nearly unanimous, vote of the electoral college. Aside from a narrow circle of ambitious aspirants and a few disnamers.

Now that the anti-third-term convention has fizzled out most ingloriously, it is proposed that an anti-red-headed convention be called to declars before the country that appointed place-hunters, not an objection be called to declare before the country that leads to the unhesitating conclusion that the loyalty of the southern people to the Union it would be dangerous to nominate any man down to the unblication of that address down to the publication of that address WASHINGTON was the almost unanmous choice of the whole people. The truth is that the people then were ery much like the people are now, and probably argued that the man who had een a good president during two terms would very likely make a better one for a third term, and desired and intended to elect him again.

Of this, the reception of his address by the senate and house, and the almost universal expression of regret and disappointment to be found in the newspapers and private letters of the time, furnish ample and incontestible evidence. It is claimed, and very justly, too, that WASHINGTON could and would have been cleefed a third time but for the fact that he became disgusted over the scramble for the offices by the democratic politicians of the time, and withdrew in mingled shame and sorrow from the political arena.

Lung, Chest, etc. Dr. von MOSCHZISKER'S

From Senator Voerhees.

Dr. von Maschisbier's treatment in my case— tarri and dealmon—proved a perfect success. I this b due hast tribute of him to make it know to what when need his medical services that I have the dim confidence in his professional solitors. Environmental TRACIA AS SOLERYTLIFE. National Brace Works, Washington

I have been very deaf in both wars, so much so that sometimes persons were obliged to haid written interescence with the I also suffered from interesting an analysis in my head and from caisers in my head and from caisers in any lead and from caisers. Note included a sufficient street northwest, who, after careful examination, another set of the light street my financing could be redored. I placed myself under his care he alseened has faithfully, and to my own surprise and this of my friends and of the various societies to which I belonged, my heading be restored to me. All symptoms of catarria and noises in the head have disappeared, and his strough in my case has exceeded my most sanguing expectations. My graftinds is beyond expression.
